GENEALOGY AND HISTORY.

NOTHING is known by the compiler, of the LEE family prior to their removal to America. In the year 1641, THOMAS LEE, the ancestor of all the LEES in this country, sailed from some port in England, for the United States. He had with him, his wife and three children, PHEBE, JANE, and THOMAS, and his Father-in-law, a Mr. BROWN. On the passage, THOMAS LEE, the father, died of the small pox, and his remains were committed to the sea. The Mother, with her Father and children arrived safely, and they lived together for many years in Saybrook, Connecticut. Mr. BROWN, her father, afterwards removed to Providence in Rhode-Island, where he married again, and from him are descended the numerous and respectable family of the BROWNS, of that town and State. The genealogy from this THOMAS LEE is given, so far as particulars could be obtained, with such incidents and facts in relation to members of the family, as were either known, or furnished to the writer.

1. THOMAS LEE, born in England—married a BROWN—sailed for this country in 1641, and died on the passage. His children were,
1st, PHEBE, who married a Mr. Large of Long Island, by whom she had a daughter, who married a Mr. Wright of Killingworth, Conn. This is all that is known of her or her descendants.

2d, JANE, who married a Mr. Hyde of Norwich, Ct., and from them descended a numerous family of that name living at Norwich and Lebanon, Ct. Besides sons, JANE had two daughters, Elizabeth and Phebe. Elizabeth married Matthew Griswold, of Lyme, Ct., from whom descended all the family of Griswolds in that town. One of their sons, was the Rev. George Griswold of the East Society in Lyme. Another was John, the father of Matthew Griswold, formerly Governor of the State of Connecticut. One of their daughters married a Mr. Dorr of Lyme; another, Col. Robert Lay of Lyme; and another, John Dennison, also of Lyme. They all left children, but no more of their history is known to the compiler. Phebe (2d daughter of Jane,) married Richard Lord of Lyme, the ancestor of the numerous family of that name in that town. One of her daughters married Samuel Ely of Lyme, (see Appendix C); another, married a Mr. Waterhouse; another, a Mr. Pierson, both of Lyme; and another, Stephen Lee, son of Thomas Lee (2).

3d, THOMAS (2)* who married Sarah Kirtland of Saybrook, Ct.

2. THOMAS LEE (son of THOMAS (1),) married SARAH KIRTLAND. Their children were,

* The figures enclosed in a parenthesis, refer to the numbers, which will be found at the left hand of the same names, when the same persons are more particularly mentioned. The reader can thus easily trace out any Genealogy desired, at pleasure.

1st, JOHN (3), who married Elizabeth Smith of Lyme.

2d, THOMAS (8), who married Elizabeth Graham of Hartford, Ct.

3d, SARAH, who married Daniel Buckingham of Saybrook, by whom she had the following children : 1st, Daniel, who married Lydia Lord of Saybrook, and had by her eight children, viz : Daniel, Adonijah, Nathan, Samuel, Giles, Andrew, Anna, and Lydia. 2d, Stephen, who moved to one of the Carolinas. 3d, a daughter (name unknown) who married Nathaniel Parker of Saybrook, but left no children. 4th, a daughter (name unknown) who married Deacon Andrew Lord of Saybrook, and left children. 5th, a daughter (name unknown) who married Jonathan Butler of Saybrook, and left children. 6th, Anna, who died unmarried.

His first wife SARAH dying, THOMAS LEE (2) married for his second wife MARY D' WOLFF of Lyme, by whom he had the following children :

1st, WILLIAM,* who married Mary Griffin of Long Island, by whom he had children, viz : 1st, Ezra, who married a Miss Southard of Lyme, and had by her several children, one of whom married the Rev. Richard C. Graham, of Dedham, Mass., and after his death, a Mr. King of Palmer, Mass. ; another daughter married the Rev. Moses

* I find, by an entry made by my Grandfather, EZRA LEE, that this William Lee, first introduced the use of Forks, at table, in Lyme. What substitute was in use before, I know not.

Baldwin, also of Palmer. 2d, Abner (5) who married Elizabeth Lee, daughter of John Lee (4). 3d, Cyrus, who married a Miss Huntley of Lyme. 4th, a daughter (name unknown) who married Uriah Rowland of Lyme, and left children. 5th, Azubah, who married Daniel D' Wolf, by whom she had children. After his death she married Josiah Sill of Lyme.

2d, STEPHEN, who married Abigail Lord, by whom he had several children; one of whom, Col. Stephen Lee married and lived in New-London; another, Thomas, married a Miss Peck; one daughter married John Lay of Lyme, and another married Nathan Latimer of New-London. All of these left children.

3d, A DAUGHTER (name unknown) who married Joseph Beckwith of Lyme, by whom she had ten children.

4th, A DAUGHTER (name unknown) who married Samuel Peck of Lyme, and had children.

5th, PHEBE, who married Deacon Reynold Marvin of Lyme,* by whom she had children.

6th, HANNAH, who married John Griswold of Lyme, (see page 4.) They had a large family,

* Several characteristic and probably authentic anecdotes of this worthy, but most eccentric man, may be found in BARBER'S "Historical Collections of Connecticut," Art. "Lyme." He was the ancestor of my esteemed friend the late Col. EDMUND KIRBY, of Brownville, New-York, being, if I mistake not, the Grandfather of his mother. The epitaph on Deacon Marvin's tombstone may still be seen by the visiter to the Burying Ground of the First Society in Lyme. It is as follows:

" This Deacon, aged 68,
Is freed on earth from serving,
May for a crown no longer wait,
Lyme's Captain Reynold Marvin."

viz: 1st, Matthew, (Governor of Connecticut) who married Ursula Wolcott, daughter of Gov. Roger Wolcott of Ct. 2d, Thomas, who married a Miss Lynde of Saybrook. 3d, Phebe who married the Rev. Jonathan Parsons of Lyme, and afterwards of Newburyport. 4th, Hannah, who married Benajah Bushnell of Norwich. 5th, Sarah, who married William Hillhouse of Montville. 6th, Lucy, who married Elijah Backus of Norwich. 7th, Clivina, who married a Mr. Elliot of New Milford. 8th, Deborah, who married a Mr. Jewett of Lyme. 9th, Lydia, who married a Mr. Loudon of New-York.

7th, LYDIA, who died unmarried.

THOMAS LEE, whose children are given above, must have been a very wealthy man, for his purchases of land are said to have amounted to one-eighth part of the town of Lyme.

3. JOHN LEE, (son of THOMAS (2)) married ELIZABETH SMITH, of Lyme, by whom he had three sons and eight daughters, viz:—

1st, JOHN (4), who married Lydia Allen of Montville.

2d, JOSEPH, who married Mary Allen of Montville. They had ten children, only three of whom lived to adult years, viz: Samuel, Joseph and Jason. The first two were Physicians; the other a Baptist minister in Lyme. He died in 1811. JOSEPH (the father) was in early life, a lay preacher. When somewhat advanced in years, he was ordained by the Presbytery of Long Island, Pastor of the church at Oyster Ponds, Long Island. He continued their minister until the Revolutionary war broke out, when he returned to Lyme, and died there at a good old age.

3d, BENJAMIN, who married Mary Ely, of Lyme, by whom he had eleven children. He was a farmer and died of the small pox in April, 1777.

4th, SARAH, who married John Lay, of Lyme, by whom she had five children.

5th, ELIZABETH, who died unmarried.

6th, PHEBE, who married James Elderkin, by whom she had children. After his death, she married Samuel Southard of Lyme, whom she survived.

7th, LUCY, who married Amos Tinker of Lyme, by whom she had children. She died of the consumption.

8th, JANE, who married Thomas Way of Lyme, by whom she had several children, one of whom, (Delight) married Giles Lee, son of John Lee (4).

9th, MARY, who married John Comstock of Montville, by whom she had six children. One of her sons (John) was a Lieutenant in the army of the Revolution, and was killed at the taking of New-York, September 15, 1776. Another son, (Asa) was drowned at sea.

10th, HEPHZIBAH, who married Elisha Lee (9) of Lyme. Their children will be given hereafter. After his death, she married John Sill of Lyme, by whom she had two sons, Richard and Enoch, both of whom died young.

11th, JOANNA, who married John Beckwith of Lyme, by whom she had four children. JOHN LEE (3) died of the measles, January 17th (O. S.)

1716, aged 44. He left a dying charge to his children and descendants enjoining each and all of them to the end of time, to keep a copy of it.* After his death, his widow married John Barley of Groton, and survived him, dying in 1762, aged about 90.

4. JOHN LEE, † (son of JOHN LEE (3),) married LYDIA ALLEN of Montville, Ct., by whom he had the following children :—

1st, ELIZABETH, born November 2, 1724, who married Abner Lee (5). Their children will be given hereafter.

2d, LYDIA, who died unmarried.

3d, THINAH, of whom nothing further is known.

His first wife dying, JOHN LEE married EUNICE LEE, daughter of THOMAS (8), by whom he had the following children :—

1st, JOHN, who married Elizabeth Griswold, but died of the small pox about nine months after his marriage, leaving no children. He was a Physician, and resided in Sharon, Conn.

2d, MARTIN, who died in 1746 of the consumption, being some ten or twelve years of age.

3d, GILES, who married, 1st, Delight Way of Lyme, (see page 8) who died childless in 1764. He then married a Miss Smith of Sandersfield, Mass., (in which place he was a farmer,) and had by her several children, all of whom died young, except a daughter, named Delight. This second wife died in 1777, and he then married Martha Crook of Blanford, Mass., by whom he also had several children. He died of the consumption in August 1790, aged 52.

4th, ANNA, who married Zachariah Marvin of Lyme, by whom, she had a number of children. She died of the small pox, in March 1777.

His second wife dying, JOHN LEE again married, his third wife being ABIGAIL TULLY of Saybrook, by whom he had, 1st, EUNICE, who married Samuel Hall, son of the Rev. Theophilus Hall of Wallingford, by whom she had eight children, viz: Lee, Eunice, Samuel, Elihu, William, Lucy, Fanny and John Hubbard. She died March 20, 1790, of the small pox. Her husband survived her about one year, dying March 29, 1791.

2d, ANDREW (11).

JOHN LEE died August 26, 1745, aged 43. He was a Lawyer of considerable eminence, having been for some time King's Attorney for the county of New London. He was for many years the Representative for Lyme, in the General Assembly. After his death, his widow ABIGAIL removed to Saybrook, and on the 6th of January 1749, was married to Deacon CALEB CHAPMAN of that town, with whom she lived until May 2, 1773, when she died, in the 65th year of her age.

5. ABNER LEE (son of WILLIAM LEE, the son of THOMAS (2) by his second wife) was born October 26, 1726, and married ELIZABETH LEE, daughter of

* A physician of eminence in his profession ; formerly living in New London, Conn., but now in New-York. In 1798, the yellow fever raged in New London with appalling violence and fatality. Dr. Webster, in his "History of Epidemic and Pestilential diseases," thus alludes to the intrepid conduct of Dr. LEE :

"Early in the sickness, all the Physicians, but one who was too much indisposed to practice, and another, Dr. Rawson, who was violently attacked with the fever, deserted the city, excepting Dr. SAMUEL H. P. LEE, to whose lot it fell alone and unassisted, to combat the fury of this dreadful pestilence. Such was the difficulty in procuring nurses and watchers, that some of our most opulent citizens were seen going from house to house with money in their hands, offering any price for assistance even for a single night, in vain."

The Dying Charge of JOHN LEE of Lyme, given to his children on his death bed, January 13th (O. S.) 1716, four days before his death :—

“ I charge you, my dear children, that you fear God and keep His commandments, and that you uphold His public worship with diligence and as constantly as you can. And that you be constant in the duty of secret prayer twice every day, all the days of your lives ; and all you that come to be heads of families, that you be constant in family prayers—praying evening and morning with your families, besides your prayers at meals. And that in your prayers, you pray for converting grace for yourselves and others, and that God will show the excellency of Christ, and cause you to love Him and believe in Him, and show you the evil of sin, and make you hate forever and turn from it—and that you never give over till you have obtained converting grace from God. Furthermore, I charge you, that you choose death rather than deny Christ in any wise or in any degree—and that you never turn Papists or heretics, but serve God in the way you were brought up in. And that you avoid all evil company, lest you be led into a snare and temptation. Also, be very careful to avoid all excess in drinking, and all other sins and profaneness, and be always dutiful to your mother and kind to one another This I leave in charge to all my posterity to the end of the world, charging every person of them to keep a copy of this my charge to my children.

“ This is my dying charge to my children. God grant you so to live and die, as to have the good man’s company.

(Signed)

JOHN LEE.”

EZRA LEE (my Grandfather.) was an officer in the Revolutionary War. The following, which was published immediately after his death, will be read with interest, at least, by all of his descendants :

Obituary notice of Capt. EZRA LEE, copied from the New-York Commercial Advertiser of November 15, 1821, where it appeared as a communication.

Died at Lyme, Connecticut, on the 29th ult., Capt. EZRA LEE, aged 72, a revolutionary officer. It is not a little remarkable, that this officer is the only man of whom it can be said, that he fought the enemy upon land, upon water, and under the water: the latter mode of warfare was as follows:

When the British fleet lay in the North River, opposite to the city of New-York, and while Gen. Washington had possession of the city, he was very desirous to be rid of such neighbors. A Mr. Bushucll of Saybrook, Con., who had the genius of a Fulton, constructed a submarine machine, of a conical form, bound together with iron bands, within which one person might sit, and with crank and sculls, could navigate it to any depth under water. In the upper part was affixed a vertical screw for the purpose of penetrating ships' bottoms, and to this was attached a magazine of powder, within which was a clock, which on being set to run any given time, would when run down, spring a gunlock, and an explosion would follow. This Marine Turtle, so called, was examined by Gen. Washington, and approved: to preserve secrecy, it was experimented with in an enclosed yard, in twenty to thirty feet water, and kept during daylight locked in a vessel's hold. The brother of the inventor was to be the person to navigate the machine into action, but on sinking it the first time he declined the service.

Gen. Washington, unwilling to relinquish the object, requested Major-General Parsons to select a person in whom he could confide, voluntarily to engage in the enterprise: the latter being well acquainted with the heroic spirit, the patriotism, and the firm and steady courage of the deceased above mentioned, immediately communicated the plan and the offer, which he accepted, observing that his life was at Gen. Washington's service. After practising the machine until he understood its powers of balancing and moving under water, a night was fixed upon for the attempt. Gen. Washington and his associates in the secret, took their stations upon the roof of a house in Broadway, anxiously waiting the result. Morning came, and no intelligence could be had of the intrepid submarine navigator, nor could the boat which attended him, give any account of him, after parting with him the first part of the night. While these anxious spectators were about to give him up as lost, several barges were seen to start suddenly from Governor's Island, then in possession of the British, and proceed towards some object near the Asia ship of the line; as suddenly they were seen to put about, and steer for the island with springing oars. In two or three minutes an explosion took place from the surface of the water, resembling a water spout, which aroused the whole city and region: the enemy's ships took the alarm—signals were rapidly given—the ships cut their cables, and proceeded to the Hook with all possible despatch, sweeping their bottoms with chains, and with difficulty prevented their affrighted crews from leaping overboard.

During this scene of consternation, the deceased came to the surface, opened the brass head of his aquatic machine; rose up, and gave a signal for the boat to come to him; but they could not reach him until he again descended under water, to avoid the enemy's shot from the island, who had discovered him, and commenced firing in his wake. Having forced himself against a strong current under water until without the reach of shot, he was taken in tow, and landed at the Battery amidst a great crowd, and reported himself to General Washington, who expressed his entire satisfaction that the object was effected without the loss of lives. The deceased was under the Asia's bottom more than two hours, endeavoring to penetrate her copper but in vain. He frequently came up under her stern galleries, searching for exposed plank, and could hear the sentinels cry. Once he was discovered by the watch on deck, and heard them speculate upon him, but concluded a drifted log had paid them a visit. He returned to her keel, and examined it fore and aft, and then proceeded to some other ships; but to the impossibility of penetrating their copper, for want of a resisting power, hundreds owed their lives. The longest space of time he could remain under water was two hours. For a particular description of this submarine curiosity, see Silliman's Journal of Arts and Sciences.

The deceased, during the war, ever had the confidence and esteem of the commander-in-chief, and was frequently employed by him on secret missions of importance. He fought with him at Trenton and Monmouth; at Brandywine the hilt of his sword was shot away, and his hat and coat were penetrated with the enemy's balls. On the return of peace, he laid aside the habiliments of war, and returned to his farm, where, like Cincinnatus, he tilled his lands, until now called by the great Commander-in-Chief, to the regions above. He died without an enemy; he was universally beloved. The suavity of his manners, evenness of temper, and correctness of principles, was proverbial, and pleasing to all his acquaintance. He enjoyed the confidence of his fellow-citizens to an extent almost unparalleled. His desk was the repository of deeds, contracts, and other evidences of property, as well as the widow's and orphan's wealth, for safe keeping. He constantly read the papers of the day, and was by many considered a political prophet. His christian and moral life was sternly strict—his Bible his guide and rule of action. “To do unto others as he would they should do unto him,” was his universal maxim and rule of life. His benevolence and charity were only circumscribed by his means. Contented and happy, he was an example of the great blessings which flow from the perfect enjoyment of life, regulated by christian and moral virtue. He has left a widow, with whom he has lived fifty-one years, and a numerous offspring to mourn the loss of one of the best of men.

ELIZABTH (d. of Samuel 17) m. Elisha Sheldon. Children: Lois, Elisha, Thomas, Mary, Samuel.

The following, copied from an old family Bible of my Father's, is all the information I have been able to obtain in relation to the Genealogy of that branch of the HILL family, of which he was a member.

The first of the name was JAMES HILL, who, as is supposed, emigrated to this country from England, about the beginning of the 18th century. His son, MICHAEL, (the only one of whom there is any record,) was born in 1698. He married for his first wife, SARAH, (maiden name unknown,) by whom he had the following children, viz :

1st. WILLIAM, born in 1722, and died in 1741.

2d. MICHAEL, born in 1724.

3d. SARAH, born in 1727.

4th. PELEG, born in 1730. A son of his, Richard Hill, formerly of Essex, Ct., was the father of Henry Hill of Boston, the Treasurer of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. I believe, though I am not positive, that the late Hiland Hill of Catskill was a grandson of PELEG HILL.

His first wife, SARAH, dying in 1730, MICHAEL HILL was married again, to ANNA SPENCER, by whom he had the following children, viz :

1st. ANNA, born in 1731, and died in 1766.

2d. AARON, born in 1733, and died in 1743.

3d. MARY, born in 1736, and died in 1743.

4th. BEULAH, born in 1741, and died in 1743,

5th. WILLIAM, born in 1743.

6th. SAMUEL, (my grandfather) born in 1745, and died December 8, 1818.

7th. AARON, born in 1752, and died in 1775.

MICHAEL HILL died in 1752, and his wife ANNA in 1786.

SAMUEL HILL, (son of MICHAEL,) married EDITH BAYLEY (born in 1745) January 2, 1769. Their children were :

1st. CHRISTOPHER, born January 28, 1771, and died September 5, 1800.

2d. EDWARD, born October 4, 1772, and died October 4, 1773.

3d. EDWARD (2d), born September 7, 1774, who married ELIZABETH LEE, November 26, 1801. Their children are given on page 12. He died April 15, 1828.

4th. MARY ANN, born March 24, 1777, who married the Rev. SETH LEE of Lyme. Their children are mentioned on page 16. She died in 1843.

5th. MEHITABEL, born March 26, 1779, and died September 5, 1843.

6th. ROXANA, born January 9, 1782. She married first, ISAAC McCRAY, of Ellington, Ct., and after his death Mr. HOLBROOK of Great Medway, Mass., who is also dead. She is the only surviving member of the family.

7th. SARAH, born January 28, 1784, who married first a Mr. ROGERS, by whom she had three children, viz: 1, Robert; 2, Sarah, who married Watrous B. Smith of East Haddam, Ct., and 3, Elizabeth, who married a Mr. Penny of Ellington, Ct. Her first husband dying, Mrs. ROGERS was again married to a Mr. Mc. CRAY of Ellington, and had by him a number of children. She died March 7, 1849.
